HAPPY ANNIVERSARY BISHOP JUDE SPEYRER Bishop Speyrer celebrates 50 years a priest THE DIOCESE OF LAKE CHARLES July 25, 2003

Dear Bishop Speyrer:

May the grace and peace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you as you celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of your ordination to the Priesthood of Jesus Christ. I pray that this season of your Golden Jubilee will be a time for giving thanks to God for all the good He has accomplished through your half century of ministry as a priest and bishop in Southwest Louisiana.

It has been my privilege to succeed you as the second Bishop of Lake Charles. I remember well our first conversation after I learned that the Holy Father had appointed me to build on the firm foundation that you laid as the founding spiritual leader of this Local Church. You offered warm words of welcome and spoke with great love and appreciation for the priests and people of Lake Charles. You patiently answered my many questions and generously offered your assistance in everything related to my transition from the Archdiocese of St. Louis and my installation as your successor. Since those hectic days more than two and one half years ago, you have always been available to assist me and offer wise counsel whenever I have called upon you. Your nearly twenty-one years as Bishop of Lake Charles were marked by many outstanding accomplishments and contributions to the well being of this community of faith. However, your foresight in establishing our Retreat House, the Saint Charles Center, is a unique contribution that provides an environment for prayer, reflection.

sion of grace for all of the People of God. The chapel, with its transparent windows, is a serene setting for the celebration of the Eucharist which is at the heart of the life and ministry of every effective priest. The Blessed Sacrament Chapel invites one into the realm of contemplation, entering the Interior Castle of Theresa of Avila, ascending Mt. Carmel with John of the Cross or climbing the Seven Story Mountain with Thomas Merton. It is, of course, a wonderful place to "Waste Time" with Jesus as one would "waste time" in the company of one's dearest friend. I share your hope that the Retreat House will be a source of vocations to the religious life, the diaconate, and the priesthood for our diocese

When you were ordained a priest in 1953, Dwight D. Eisenhower was inaugurated as President, scientists James Watson and Francis Crick made the revolutionary discovery of the molecular structure of DNA, Tenzing Norgay and Edmund Hillary were the first people to climb to the top of Mt. Everest, the world's highest mountain, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, convicted of espionage, were executed in Sing Sing prison, Ernest Hemingway won the Pulitzer Prize for "The Old Man and the Sea," Cecil B. De Mille's "The Greatest Show on Earth" won the Academy Award, Winston Churchill won the Nobel Prize for Literature, Lucille Ball gave birth to Desi Arnaz, Jr. on the same day the fictional Little Ricky was born on "I Love Lucy," the first Playboy magazine hit the stands with Marilyn Monroe on the cover, James Baldwin's provocative novel, "Go Tell It On The Mountain" was published, and a first class stamp cost three cents! Even though Thurgood Marshall was already gathering materials for his historic Supreme Court case (Brown v. Board of Education) that would rule segregated public schools unconstitutional the following year (1954), even though the yoke of racism, segregation and prejudice was weighing heavily on the shoulders of People of Color in the North h few African-Americans could have imagined the still unfinished socia revolution that would begin less than a decade later, when the remarkable and exhausted Rosa Parks would refuse to give up her seat on a Birmingham bus. In the Vatican, Pope Pius XII was in the second decade of his long pontificate that began in the midst of the horrors of the Nazi Holocaust and would lay the theological foundation for Blessed John XXIII's "new Pentecost," the great Second Vatican Council (1963-1965) which transformed the Catholic Church. That historic Council spoke of the ministry of priests that in words certainly apply to you, dear Jude. "Priests should occupy their positions of leadership as men who do not seek the things that are their own but the thing's that are Jesus Christ's. They should unite their efforts with those of their people and conduct themselves among them after the example of the Master, who came amongst us 'not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'(Mt. 20:28). Priests have been placed in the midst of their people so that they may lead them all to the unity of charity, loving them with heartfelt affection." (Decree on the Ministry and Life of Priests.)

1953-2003. Fifty years! How long is that? More than half a human life span. Yet it has passed in a flash! The world and the Church have change so much in those five decades. Yet, both have remained the same. The world needs the good news of Jesus Christ and the Church is charged to proclaim it. And as a good and faithful priest this is what you have done. So many reverent celebrations of the Eucharist, baptisms, first communions, confessions, confirmations, marriages, anointings of the sick, ordinations, Liturgies of Christian Burial, Advents, Christmases, Lents, and Easters. Fifty celebrations of The Church's Year of Grace at the altar of the Lord In my name and in the name of the priests and people of the diocese you nurtured into life, I thank you, Bishop Speyrer, for being an outstanding priest and an irreplaceable member of the Body of Jesus Christ. Happy Golden Anniversary! "Tu es sarcedos in aeternum, secundum ordinem Melchizedek!"

On January 29, 1980, came the call from the Holy Father, which elevated him as a successor to the Apostles. His experience had formed him well for this new task. He had served in a large church parish in Opelousas, and as pastor in a small parish in Lake Arthur, where he learned the workings of an elementary and high school. As founding Pastor of Our Lady Queen of Heaven Peace Parish he carried out the task of uniting former black and white parishes.

In the Diocese of Lafayette Chancery he had worked with detention centers, hospitals and nursing homes, and had served on finance and building commissions. His experience as chaplain at the University of Southwestern Louisiana had given him a unique insight into the lives of college students.

Congratulations on your 50th Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood! I was a young seminarian, just completing my sophomore year at Immaculata, when you were ordained. Since then, much has transpired in both of our lives. I thank you for being the inspiration you have been over the years for me, as a priest and then as a bishop. I thank God for the opportunities you have provided me in your role as Bishop of Lake Charles. You were always open, understanding, challenging and supportive of me. Not knowing that one day you would submit my name as a possible Episcopal needed. You laid a strong foundation and charted a steady course as the first Bishop of the Diocese of Lake Charles. I have so many fond memories of our relationship as a priest to his bishop. You impacted my life in ways you will never know.

Some of the things I observed in your pastoral ministry I have tried to reflect in my own now as a bishop. I cannot begin to thank you for all you have done and meant to me over the years. I look forward to celebrating with you on July 25, 2003. I pray that God will give you many more years to enjoy those things that fill your life in these years of retirement. May the blessings promised in eternity be experienced by you in a beginning way now of time. Ad multos Annos!

It has been said, and rightly so, that to be a priest is no small thing. To be a priest for one year is a great event and to be a priest for 50 years is cause for a great celebration and jubilee and, dear Bishop Speyrer, you have been a great priest. In the Diocese of Lafayette you labored so beautifully with all people of different races and cultures. You make you mark among them and you walked with them as a brother and leader. Then when you were named as the first Bishop of the beautiful Diocese of Lake Charles you continued that priestly ministry as you exercised your office of Bishop. You stood ready to assist so

On a more personal note I recall when I was named Bishop of Lafayette your personal kindness extended tome on every single occasion. I take this opportunity, Bishop Speyrer, to thank you for extending yourself to me who had come from upstate New York, to Louisiana, to exercise my ministry as Bishop. You were very kind.
